REPORT ON THE PROGRESS OF THE WORK DURING THE YEAR 1900

The work of the Department during the year 1900 has been characterized by a steady and continuous progress in all the various branches of the service. The most important of the work done during the year has been the completion of the Census of the Marine Mammals, the publication of the Census of the Fishes, and the completion of the Census of the Birds.

The Census of the Marine Mammals, which was completed in the month of June, 1900, is the first census of this kind ever made in the United States. It was made by the United States Fish Commission, and the results are published in the form of a report by the Commissioner of Fish and Fisheries.

The Census of the Fishes, which was completed in the month of July, 1900, is the first census of this kind ever made in the United States. It was made by the United States Fish Commission, and the results are published in the form of a report by the Commissioner of Fish and Fisheries.

The Census of the Birds, which was completed in the month of August, 1900, is the first census of this kind ever made in the United States. It was made by the United States Fish Commission, and the results are published in the form of a report by the Commissioner of Fish and Fisheries.
